Yoga in Daily Life Youth summer camp	For teenagers and students of age 16 – 25. Special program including part time karmayoga, lectures and special programs. The participants pay half price. The offer of Pay Two+Stay Free applies for them as well. However, if they want to attend the regular program (program A or B), they should pay the student price.
Ganga rooms	Rooms in Ganga house are primary for families with children (can be also 2 mothers with children). For all others a non-binding registration is possible, if places are available they will be given in Strilky office. If there are many family applications for the Ganga house, two mothers might be put together in a room with their children. In that case the fathers stay in a room in the castle or sleep in the hall.
Beds for single days / weekends	Beds are reserved prior for the whole week participants. If available, beds for weekends / single days can be booked in Strilky office. Please be aware that even if you apply for a bed for a weekend, if not available you could still be lodged in a hall.
Regulations for single days / Satsangs	Satsang fee includes one evening satsang entry. Dinner (for registered participants) is available for extra fee (+5,- EUR). Arrival before lunch without staying overnight: half day fee (hall) Arrival any time with staying overnight: single day fee
Ashram tent	New possibility - a new ashram tent/wooden hut with two wooden plank-beds. If you bring your own tent, the category “tent/outside” applies. Ashram tents are not available from week 6.
Cancellation	The cancellation fee until one week before seminar is 20%, afterwards till three days before the seminar 50% of the seminar fee. Afterwards, there is no refund of the seminar fee. In case of severe reasons (e. g. illness) a refund can be requested at national organisers on condition that you have informed them before the start of the program. Please note that any refunds have to be applied for before the start of the program.
